

STAR opens a sales office in Bilbao

STAR has established a presence in Bilbao to be closer to its clients in the north of Spain.

On 1 May 2017, STAR Servicios Lingüísticos established its presence in Bilbao, and with this step, the Barcelona-based translation company continues its strategy of expansion in the Spanish market. “Our clients are mainly located in the three key regions of the country: Catalonia, Madrid and the Basque Country”, explained Michael Scholand, CEO of the Catalan company. “We already have a good base of clients in Álava, Bizkaia, Gipuzkoa and Navarra. With our sales representative in Bilbao, our aim is to be closer to our clients and take better advantage of the enormous potential of the northern part of the peninsula.”

Expert in internationalisation

Our new sales representative, Garazi Mosteiro, holds a degree in translation, with her languages being Spanish, Basque, English and French. She also has additional training and experience in the internationalisation of companies. She will focus on companies that are in the middle of the internationalisation process and that require a reliable partner to meet all of their needs related to the life cycle of multilingual technical communication: the management of multilingual product information, technical writing and illustration, translation into all languages, simultaneous and consecutive interpreting, multilingual DTP, graphical editing, publication and the logistics of publication.

To request a no-obligation quote, find out more or arrange a sales call or visit, please do not hesitate to contact our new sales representative:
