The STAR Group, in sixth place in the world ranking of translation companies

The prestigious consultancy Common Sense Advisory has again published its annual report on the language services market and the ranking of the 100 largest providers.

According to the report, the language services and related technologies market continued to grow, reaching a total turnover of more than 37 billion dollars in 2014.

With its unique range of services and language technologies that cover the entire life cycle of multilingual technical communication, the STAR Group managed to maintain sixth place in the ranking of the largest providers.

The consolidation of this ranking is the reward for the Group's focus on technological innovation and its clear commitment to meeting the needs of its clients. As a trusted partner for internationalisation, STAR has accompanied some of these clients for the past 30 years.
